

The Principles of Forest School

It inspires...

- A deep and meaningful connection to the world and the child's understanding of how they fit within it.
- Creative and imaginative learners that can go forth and exert change in the world.

It creates...

- A safe, non-judgemental and nurturing environment for learners to be themselves and try skills beyond everyday parameters.
- A culture where challenge and risk taking are embraced positively.
- Confident and powerful learners that show resilience beyond their years.

It encourages ....

- The development of play through fascination and exploration.
- The 'whole' child to flourish by developing more than just their intellectual skills but their physical, emotional spiritual and spiritual attributes.
